

Andrew Linn

andrew@bld.us | (404) 518 2107

EDUCATION

- 2012 - 2013 Yale University Masters of Arts in the History of Science & Medicine
- 2006 - 2011 Cornell University Bachelor of Architecture

EMPLOYMENT

- 2013 - Current BLDUS, Washington DC - Principal. Development, construction, and marketing manager for projects in DC, MD & VA, including NZE houses & apartment buildings.
- 2022 - Current Virginia Tech, Alexandria, VA - Professor of Practice for undergraduate and graduate level design studios and courses.
- 2020 - 2021 Catholic University, Washington DC - Visiting Lecturer for undergraduate and graduate level design studio.
- 2018 - 2020 University of Maryland, College Park MD - Visiting Lecturer for undergraduate design studios, elective theory/history/representation courses, and the school's general sustainability lecture class.
- 2013 Florida International University, Miami, FL - Visiting Lecturer for undergraduate drawing course.
- 2011 - 2012 Arquitectonica, Miami, FL - Led Arq archive review and compiled material into book proposals. Wrote and designed lectures presented by office principals; wrote website project descriptions.
- 2010 OMA, Rotterdam, NL & Venice, IT - Designed and fabricated Cronocaos exhibit at the Venice Biennale.
- 2009 Fantastic Norway, Oslo, NO - Designed and fabricated installation at DOGA.
- 2008 Tigerman McCurry, Chicago, IL - Fabricated study models of houses.

HONORS

- 2023 Architectural Record Design Vanguard Award
- 2022 AIA Long Island Design Excellence Award
- 2020 USGBC NCR Midsummer Night's Green: Responsible Design
- 2019 AN Young Architect Award
- 2019 AN Best of Design: New Materials Award
- 2019 AIA DC Design Excellence Award
- 2019 Washingtonian Residential Design Award
- 2019 Washingtonian Residential People's Choice Award